December at the Lodge

The Elk's Kids participated in Los Alamos' annual Winterfest Light Parade on December 5 with a float. The theme for the float was "Remembering Those Not Home for the Holidays."

Elk member Randy Smith, owner of Los Alamos Home Improvement, donated his time and the use of his company's flat bed truck for the float.

Although it was a really cold night for a parade, the kids bundled up for the ride on the float and had a great time.

Following the parade, Santa visited to the Lodge to see all the kids.

In addition to the other activities through the month, the Lodge held a Christmas cookie exchange on December 19. Forty-two dozen cookies were exchanged.
